of the

NEW JERSEY BRANCH OF THE AMERICAN

ASSOCIATION FOR LABORATORY ANIMAL SCIENCE, INCORPORATED

A New Jersey Non-profit Corporation
Adopted 05/2007
Updated 03/2017
I. Purpose
The purpose of the New Jersey Branch of the American Association for Laboratory Animal Science, Incorporated, a New Jersey non-profit Corporation (“NJAALAS”) is to sponsor and promote scientific, educational, and training programs for its members who are professionals engaged in the care, handling, study, use, and production of laboratory animals as well as promote the goals and objectives as outlined in the Constitution of National AALAS.

II. NJAALAS Objectives
- Promoting fellowship and cooperation among persons interested in the mission and philosophy of AALAS
- Sponsoring and promoting scientific, educational, and training programs for its members who are engaged in the care and handling of laboratory animals
- Disseminating information to members, other Branches and National AALAS, as necessary

III. NJAALAS Board of Trustees
1. The NJAALAS Board of Trustees (BOT) will consist of the following Officers: President, President-elect, Secretary, Treasurer and Immediate Past President. The BOT also includes four elected Trustees.
2. Quorum – A majority of members of the BOT (e.g., 5 members), present in person or via teleconference, shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business matters at any meeting. If less than a majority is present, no transactions can occur. All matters before the BOT shall be decided by a majority vote of those present, unless otherwise required by these Bylaws.
3. Action Without Meetings – Unless otherwise provided by these Bylaws, any action required or permitted to be taken at a meeting of the BOT may be taken without a meeting if, prior to such action, all members consent thereto. Such consents shall be recorded in the meeting minutes.

IV. Meeting Types
1. The BOT will hold at least one meeting a year, or more as needed to conduct the business of the Branch.
2. General Membership Meetings are open to all NJAALAS members. There are typically four General Membership Meetings a year.
